Our Ref. 00-30

The Patent and Trademark Office regulations require, as does the Declaration, that the inventors and anyone associated with the inventors, such as the assignee, have a duty to disclose to the PTO any information which may be important to the Patent Office Examiner in deciding to allow the application to issue as a patent. If you are aware of any such information which has not previously been called to my attention, please let me know.

Thank you for your cooperation.
